

[Kyoto University Asian Economic Development Seminar (No.5)]

Joint Economic Workshop
Between

Faculty of Economics, Chulalongkorn University and
Graduate School of Economics & Center for South East Asian Studies (CSEAS)
Kyoto University

Saturday, December 3, 2016

<Hosting by Faculty of Economics,
Center for Southeast Asian Studies-ASEAN Research Platform, & Kyoto University Asian Study Unit >

Venue: Mizuho Hall, Basement Floor, Law & Economics East Building, Kyoto University

9:45-10:00	Opening Remark Chair: Prof. Fumiharu Mieno, Ph.D. (CSEAS, Kyoto University) Prof. Shuji Hisano, Ph.D. (Graduate School of Economics, Kyoto University) Prof. Worawet Suwanrada, Ph.D. (Faculty of Economics, Chulalongkorn University)
10:00-10:25	"Thailand & Japan as a Partnership for Sustainable Development in Greater Mekong Sub-region" Asst. Prof. Piti Srisangnam, Ph.D. (Faculty of Economics, Chulalongkorn University)"
10:25-10:35	Discussion
10:35-11:00	"Do Migration and Remittances Reduce Poverty? Evidence from Myanmar" Ms. Yalei ZHAI (Ph. D candidate and Doctoral Fellow, Graduate School of Economics)
11:00-11-10	Discussion
11:10-11:35	"Finance, Institutions and Innovation Activities in China" Associate Professor, Go Yano (Graduate School of Economics, Kyoto University.)
11:35-11:45	Discussion
11:45-12:10	"Legacy of Colonial Expansion on Governance Institutions and Development : Evidence from Thailand" Lecturer Jessica Vechbanyongratana, Ph.D. (Faculty of Economics, Chulalongkorn University)
12:10-12:20	Discussion
12:20-12:30	Closing Remark by Dean Worawet Suwanrada