[Overview and purpose of the course]
The goal of the course is to help students understand better the current economic and social situation in Japan by participating in 3 field study trips to Japanese companies, government agencies and other institutions. Each of the field study trips will include a pre-trip study session and a post-trip discussion session, after which the students should submit essays to the respective instructors in charge. Students are required to plan, prepare and conduct the fourth field trip by themselves and present the results in class.
[Course objectives]
Students are able to develop their understandings on actual economy and management in Japan and their practical and academic skills of field survey by participating this course.
[Course schedule and contents]
*Due to COVID-19, the content of this course is subject to change. For further details, please see a document posted on KULASIS/PandA (also an email announcement). This course consists of four field trip-based modules: three modules each consisting of an orientation lecture, field trip, after-trip discussion, and essay submission. In the fourth module, students work independently, alone or in group, to plan, prepare for, and conduct a field trip, and give a presentation in the 15th class. The schedule will be slightly irregular, rather than one class per week for 15 weeks, as the field trips take a half/full day each. The destinations and detailed schedules will be communicated to students as soon as finalized. 1st Week: Course orientation (all students taking the course are required to attend). 2nd - 14th Week: (an orientation lecture + an field trip + an after-trip discussion) x 3 modules Tentative destinations are listed below, which all are subject to change. Module1: Toyota Commemorative Museum of Industry and Technology + Noritake Garden Module2: Kyocera Museum of Art + The Entrepreneurial Museum of Challenge and Innovation Module3: Kyoto Prefectural Council of Social Welfare (Foodbank and Children's Cafeteria) 15th Week: Student fieldtrip presentations (Module 4)
[Course requirements]
No prerequisite knowledge or skill required other than English language ability sufficient to interact actively in class.
