

International Master in “Global Markets, Local Creativities”

Social responsibility & research ethics

Knowledge in economics & history

Analytical & critical thinking skills

Academic & practical English skills

International outlook & leadership

Scientifically rigorous MA thesis

Master's thesis (Three universities conduct joint-supervision and examination)

Study at KU
Study at UB
Study at UoG

4th Semester
3rd Semester
2nd Semester
1st Semester

Master Thesis

- Joint supervision involving 3 universities
- Main supervisor at KU; sub-supervisor at UoG & UB

Master thesis submission (late May)

UoG, UB supervisors selection (Jan.)

KU supervisor selection (Oct.)

【Compulsory Courses】

- Master Thesis Design
- Master Thesis Research

【Elective Courses】

- Economic History Readings A etc.

【Elective- Compulsory Courses】

- Economic Development and Policy in the Asia Pacific
- Industries and Global Competition
- International Development Assistance Policy
- On-site Research Training A

3 universities collaborate in student support & study guidance

Summer School

【Compulsory Courses】

- Creative Cities Intervention Models and Entrepreneurial Dynamics
- Family Business Innovation and Globalization
- Companies in Emerging Sectors
- Port Cities in Historical Perspective

Move to Kyoto

【Elective Courses】

- (Examples)
- Topics in International Economics
 - Practicum (Consultancy Project)
 - Global Health
 - Institutional or Company Placement etc.

3 universities collaborate in student support & study guidance

Move to Barcelona

【Compulsory Courses】

- The Globalised Economy
- Global Varieties of Capitalism

【Optional Study】

- Courses to improve English ability

【Elective Courses】

- (Examples)
- Technology Transfer in the Global Economy
 - Innovation in the Middle East and North Africa
 - Issues in Global Political Economy etc.

3 universities collaborate in student support & study guidance

Move to Glasgow

Application and Selection Process on GLOCAL Consortium

