[Overview and purpose of the course]
The objective of this course is to better understand the current economic and social situation in Japan by participating in three field study trips to Japanese companies, government agencies, and other institutions. Each field study module includes a pre-trip study session and a post-trip discussion session, followed by the submission of an essay to the respective instructor in charge.
[Course objectives]
Students are able to develop their understandings on actual economy and management in Japan and their practical and academic skills of field survey by participating in this course.
[Course schedule and contents]
*Due to COVID-19, the content of this course is subject to change. For further details, please see a document posted on KULASIS/Panda (also an email announcement). This course consists of three field trip-based modules, each of which offers an orientation lecture, field trip, after-trip discussion, and essay submission. The schedule will be slightly irregular, rather than one class per week for 15 weeks, as the field trips take a half/full day each. The destinations and detailed schedules will be communicated to students as soon as finalized. 1st Week: Course orientation (all students taking the course are required to attend). 2nd - 14th Week: (an orientation lecture + field trip(s) + an after-trip discussion) x 3 modules Tentative destinations are listed below, which all are subject to change. Module1: Kyocera Museum of Art+The Entrepreneurial Museum of Challenge and Innovation Module2: Kyo-yuzen kimono dyeing workshops Module3: Kansai Yotsuba Home Delivery Distribution Center 15th Week: Feedback
[Course requirements]
No prerequisite knowledge or skill required other than English language ability sufficient to interact actively in class.
